

Outside the west entrance to the Capitol is a bronze statue of Abraham Lincoln, the president for whom the capital city of Lincoln, Nebraska is named. On either side of Lincoln stand two stone eagles. Engraved on the stone behind Lincoln are the words of his most famous speech, the Gettysburg Address.